PHILLIES BEAT BOSTON.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—The Phillies defeated Boston to-day for the second time and tied the Beaneaters for second place in the National League race. Both teams played hard to win and the Quakers owe their victory to misplays made by Boston's battery in the third inning. With the exception of this inning, Phillips pitched good games, while O'Brien's delivery was not so good as it was in the first game.

Score:
Philadelphia.....3 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

Batteries—Nichols, Bergen and Sullivan; O'Brien and McFarland. Earned runs, Philadelphia 1, time, 1:55. Umpires, Phillips and Dwyer.

MERCER WAS HOT.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Washington took the first game to-day by outplaying the Orioles. The second went to the visitors, who hit McFarland hard. Errors by the Senators also assisted them materially. In the second game, Mercer disputed umpire Manassau's decision that Schickel was safe on a steal from second to third and ended by catching the umpire by his shirt and shaking him. Mercer was fined and ordered out of the game. He resumed his position at third and when again ordered out of the field, ran after Manassau, who had gone to second base. There he grabbed the umpire by the shirt and after a struggle landed in several places. The umpire came off the field, followed by Mercer, who was intercepted by a policeman. The crowd began to surround the men, but were dispersed. Mercer finally left the grounds, apparently by direction of the police, and Snyder umpired the game thereafter unassisted. The action of the Washington player was the most disgraceful ever seen here, but so far as known no notice of it will be taken by the club.

Score:
Baltimore.....0 0 0 1 1 2 0 2 0 0 0 0

Batteries—Evans and Klitzinger; Howells and Smith. Earned runs, Washington 4, Baltimore 4, time 2 hours. Attendance, 1,200. Umpires, Manassau and Snyder.

Second game:
Baltimore.....1 2 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

Batteries—McFarland, O'Brien and Powers; Klitzinger and Howells. Earned runs, Baltimore 2, time 1:40. Umpires Snyder and Manassau.

ST. LOUIS BUNCHED HITS.
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9.—St. Louis took the first from Cincinnati to-day by bunching hits in the first and sixth innings. The reds had a big lead in the second, but the Perfectos kept at them and tied the score in the sixth, when the game was called. Attendance, 1,200. Score:
St. Louis.....3 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

Batteries—Powell and O'Connor; Johnston and Kahoe. Earned runs, St. Louis 2, Cincinnati 2, time 1:40. Umpires, O'Day and McDonald.

Second game:
Cincinnati.....0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

Batteries—Baker and O'Connor; O'Connor and Cronin and Wood. Earned runs, St. Louis 1, Cincinnati 2, time 1:40. Umpires O'Day and McDonald.

BOXING.

There is a rumor that Eddie Kennedy cannot make the weight, 136 pounds, at 8 p. m. Thursday for his contest with Jack Waldron at Wheeling, says a Pittsburgh paper. This Manager James Mason denies, although he says Kennedy is a few pounds over weight now. Eddie will be at the required weight when the time comes to weigh in. Waldron's manager writes that a Waldron crowd from East Liverpool, O., will go to Wheeling, willing to wager a good-sized sum on the outcome. Kennedy will put up the fight of his life against Waldron, being aware that Waldron must be a tough customer when he could fight Spike Sullivan twenty-two rounds in the east.

Eddie Kennedy and Jack Waldron are to go twenty rounds at Wheeling next Thursday, says "Solar Plexus," in the Pittsburgh Post. Waldron, owing to his cleverness, will furnish Kennedy with a good test, and he should be able to get a line on his ability when pitted against a clever man. We know what he can do to a man who stands up to his work, but he has really never met a man of Waldron's experience and ring generalship. It took Spike Sullivan twenty-two rounds to beat Waldron, and it would be no small plume for Kennedy's cap if he should perform the feat in less time.

STATE PARDON BOARD.

The Meeting at Moundsville Yesterday Refused a Long List of Petitions—A List of Them.

Editor Presley W. Morris, of the Parkersburg State Journal, and Judge Brannon, of Weston, of the state board of pardons, were in the city last night, and left to attend the hanging at the penitentiary at midnight. Mr. Morris furnished the Intelligencer with the work of the board at its session. Twenty-four petitions were refused, as follows:

Isiah Nixon, convicted of burglary in the circuit court of Wood county, and sentenced November 2, 1898, to six years confinement in the penitentiary.

Joseph Hall and Isaac Perkins, convicted in the circuit court of Hampshire county of grand larceny, and sentenced April 7, 1898, to two years confinement in the penitentiary.

John Griffith, from Grant county, for second degree murder.

W. H. Howell, murder in the first degree, from Randolph county, in for life.

Richard Franklin, convicted in the circuit court of Pleasants county and sentenced to two years imprisonment for entering a house with intent to commit larceny.

Charles Gibson, convicted in the criminal court of Ohio county, of embezzlement and sentenced to two years confinement in the penitentiary.

William Holstein, for burglary, from Lincoln county, for five years, from November 23, 1898.

Francis Shutt, convicted in the circuit court of Mason county, of murder in the second degree and sentenced April 25, 1899, to ten years confinement in the penitentiary.

J. W. Sexton, already discharged.

Glarence Reed, felony, from the circuit court of Barbour county, sentenced for eight years and six months, March 2, 1898.

Terry Short, for two years, for larceny.

Harry Edmonds, and A. H. Hawkins, convicted in the circuit court of Putnam county of burglary, sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

Henry Forbes, convicted of rape in the circuit court of Fayette county, sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary.

Charles Bruener, burglary; sentenced to the penitentiary from Barbour county.

Charles Dorsey, sentenced in the circuit court of Berkeley county, to eleven years in the penitentiary, for grand larceny.

Charles Johnson, convicted in the circuit court of Lincoln county, and sentenced October 24, 1898, to six years confinement in the penitentiary.

Harry Valtie, convicted in the criminal court of Ohio county, of petit larceny; sentenced in October, 1898, to three years confinement in jail.

William Smithley, convicted of unlawful shooting, in the circuit court of Preston county; sentenced to five years confinement in the penitentiary, July 12, 1898.

Paul Clifford, sentenced to the penitentiary from Monongalia county, for burglary.

Thomas N. Lilly, convicted of grand larceny in the circuit court of Wyoming county, sentenced July 2, 1897, to five years in the penitentiary.

Lee Dunback, convicted of burglary, in the circuit court of Tucker county, sentenced November 24, 1898, to two years.

James R. Canfield, convicted of forgery, in the circuit court of Tucker county, and sentenced to two years confinement.

Amos Browning, convicted in the criminal court of Mingo county, of unlawful shooting, and sentenced to three years confinement in the penitentiary.

S. L. Baxter, convicted in the circuit court of Harrison county, for producing an abortion.

The board will probably be in session the rest of the week and expects to decide at least fifty more cases.

It is not known when the cases of Chaddock and Henderson, from Wood county, will be acted upon.

Denied by Major Crumbaugh.

Major S. B. Crumbaugh, supervising inspector of the Seventh district, was in the city yesterday on his every-two-months' visit for the purpose of looking over the books of the local inspectors, which were found in good shape.

Speaking an Intelligencer reporter yesterday afternoon, Major Crumbaugh took occasion to deny in unqualified language the stand he was reported by the Register yesterday morning to have taken in the matter of the threatened strike of the river pilots and engineers at Pittsburgh. It was asserted that Major Crumbaugh had said that the government might take a hand and revoke the pilots' and engineers' licenses.

"I made no statement whatever to any newspaper reporter in Pittsburgh or anywhere else. I am not in the habit, either of trying cases before they come to me. There is not the least truth in the Register publication of this morning."

MOUNDSVILLE BUDGET.

Yesterday's News From Marshall County's Chief City.

The members of the Methodist Episcopal church here will give a reception to their new pastor, W. B. King, and bid the retiring pastor, D. L. Ash, who goes as presiding elder of Clarksville district, good-by, at the W. C. T. U. hall to-morrow evening. A literary and musical programme will be given by the Epworth League and refreshments will be served by the ladies of the church. Rev. D. W. Ruble, of the Moundsville circuit, will be present to help make the occasion a pleasant one. Dr. J. C. McCullough will be master of ceremonies, and a general good time is expected. All members of the church are expected to be present and bring their friends with them.

The October term of the circuit court will open this morning at 9 o'clock, with Judge Melvin on the bench. There are thirty-four cases on the docket besides the large number carried over from last term. This promises to be a long and busy term. The grand jury meets this morning and the petit jury next Monday morning.

Yesterday afternoon it was brought to the attention of City Health Officer W. DeWitt Stewart, that there was a case of diphtheria, in the home of R. R. Lutes, on Fourth street. He at once ordered the residence quarantined, and the well known flag was soon seen at the residence.

The two members of the pardon board, President Morris and Judge Brannon, did not arrive in the city until late last evening. They went into session at once upon their arrival, but only some routine business was transacted. In all probability they will hold a session to-day.

Governor and Mrs. G. W. Atkinson and Chief of Staff Colonel Appleton left over the Baltimore & Ohio road yesterday at noon, for Morgantown, after having been in the city since Sunday afternoon, as the guests of Warden and Mrs. S. A. Hawk.

Miss Hattie M. Johnson lost her gold watch and chain last Friday evening, somewhere on the street. She offers to liberally reward the finder when it is returned to her.

BELLAIKE HAPPENINGS.

Matters of Interest in the Metropolis of Belmont County

The local Republican committee started out briskly yesterday to poll the city, each committeeman or some one representing them, taking a precinct. The Democrats have taken their poll and are said to be encouraged by it, but they were probably looking for encouragement of this kind and doing the work themselves found it. A change may come over the spirit of their dreams.

Rev. Charles M. Watson and wife leave to-day for Indianapolis, where Mr. Watson will attend a theological college for the winter, and fill a pulpit in that city during the same period. His place here will be filled during his absence by Rev. Mr. Fisher.

Joseph A. Frimms and Miss Blanche Murphy have secured a license to wed and Joe has not been seen at his place of business since. It is probable the services of a minister have been utilized by this time.

A number of Bellaire physicians will attend the meeting of the Eastern Ohio Medical Society at Steubenville to-day, Drs. J. P. West and J. S. McClellan being on the programme for discussions.

The younger set of charming young ladies met at the home of Miss Katie Darrah last night and completed arrangements for the Country Club's entertainments this winter.

The Stanton Heater Company has had a wonderful increase of business lately. Three car loads of heaters have been sent to one town in Iowa the past month.

The social committee of the Shakespeare Club met at the home of Miss Sophia Miller last night, and arranged for social features of the club.

The two-year-old son of Trim Way was scalded slightly at the home of his grandfather, Dr. T. M. Wells, by spilling hot water upon himself.

B. C. Meyer, chairman of the Democratic committee, invites the Democrats to make his office headquarters and of course they will.

Mrs. J. R. Smith will leave to-day for Chicago, to visit relatives for a time, after which she will probably locate in Philadelphia.

H. R. Snyder, of the steel plant, had a serious fall Sunday and will be laid up for some time, but his injuries are not dangerous.

The city council will meet this evening and will take action looking toward a vote on another electric light franchise.
